WARRIOR ADVENTURE QUEST

Purpose: To facilitate the connection between the challenges of participation in a high adventure activity and the challenges of Soldier transition after deployment, the recommendation of the IPT was to combine high adrenaline outdoor recreation (ODR) activities with the Army Medical Department (AMEDD) psychological resiliency building program. Their Leader-led after action debriefing (L-LAAD) techniques were fashioned to create such a connection and assist Soldiers in realizing a “new normal”.

- Any Army Unit is eligible for WAQ once per every 12 months, regardless of deployment status.
- Army National Guard and Reserve are considered Army Units and therefore eligible, while under Title 10 status.
- If you would like your unit to participate in a WAQ event, please contact Brianna Wilcox at 580-442-7835, or Sarah Rucker at 580-442-7066
