Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Margarita Deleon, Family Advocacy Program Manager

U.S. ARMY

2025 Installation Commander's Proclamation

October is Domestic Violence Prevention Month, a time for us to pause, reflect, and raise awareness about the serious issue of domestic abuse. This month serves as a reminder to educate our community on early intervention and prevention strategies. Domestic violence stems from a range of complex factors, and we must not assume someone else is addressing it. Each of us shares the responsibility to uphold Army values and foster safe, respectful, and healthy relationships within our military community.

When even one Soldier, spouse, or intimate partner experiences abuse, we fall short of our readiness goals. Preventing domestic violence is not a task for a few—it requires a collective effort from all of us to ensure our Army remains strong, united, and mission-ready.

The Fort Sill Domestic Violence Prevention Month 2025 message is clear: Healthy Relationships Must Promote Safety, Respect, and Responsibility.

Every Soldier, Family Member, and Army Civilian deserves to live free from fear, abuse, and violence. Relationships built on trust, communication, and mutual respect are essential to individual well-being and overall military readiness. It is our duty to support survivors, recognize signs of abuse, and take action to prevent harm.

Leadership at every level plays a critical role in establishing a culture of accountability, respect, and zero tolerance for domestic violence. We must lead by example and hold ourselves and others accountable for maintaining safe environments.

Let us renew our commitment to ensuring every member of our community can live in dignity and safety. Together, we strengthen our Army and honor the trust placed in us by our Nation. Join the Fort Sill Family Advocacy Program in turning this October into the start of a sustained effort to prevent domestic violence. Through shared commitment, we can foster relationships grounded in respect and responsibility—and protect the people who make our community strong.

NOW, THEREFORE, I do hereby proclaim October 2025 as Domestic Violence Prevention Month at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. I urge all Soldiers, Family Members, and Civilians to participate in scheduled events, raise awareness, and stand united in our efforts to prevent domestic violence and promote healthy relationships across our military community.

Together, let us take a stand for safety, respect, and responsibility.

Tenants must pick up and properly dispose of animal waste and residents who walk their pet must carry a plastic bag to retrieve and dispose of any droppings.
